Letter From The Pastor...

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

We continue our reflections on the Holy Mass. Today we continue on the third part which is the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

In the celebration of the Eucharist, sacramental memorial of the Death of the Lord, the Christian people offer Jesus the same praises that the people offered Him in His entrance into Jerusalem, when He went to live the Passion.

Our life must be a liturgy of praise to God. May we always live life recalling the great favors that the Lord has done for us, thanking and praising Him always. May we say as the psalmist: "What shall I render to the Lord for all his bounty to me?"

After the Sanctus, the congregation kneels, assuming a posture of reverence in preparation for the central act of the Mass. The priest continues the prayer, giving praise and thanks, and calling upon the Holy Spirit, the Epiclesis, which means call upon, invoke upon, to change our gifts of bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ, for nothing in the Eucharistic sacrifice happens by man's effort alone. This happens when Priest places his hands over the gifts, and the Alter Server rings the bells. Thus, we can clearly see how the Eucharist is a continuation of the Incarnation of the Lord. Just as by the power of the Holy Spirit, in a Virgin's (Mary's) womb, the Word became Flesh, likewise in this moment, by the power of the Holy Spirit, in the womb of a virgin (the Church), Christ becomes present in the Eucharist.

Institution Narrative: He then recalls the events of the Last Supper—the institution of the Eucharist, or Consecration, taken from the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, as well as 1 Corinthians 11:23-26. This also includes the elevation, first the sacred Host, then the sacred Chalice, often to the sounds of ringing bells, proclaiming that a great miracle has occurred: Bread and wine are no longer bread and wine. Christ is now present in the Eucharist, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The real presence of God! For many Catholics, these words might be too familiar. Some of us have heard these words hundreds or thousands of times since our childhood repeated at every Holy Mass. We might be tempted to take them for granted or consider them routine. But what if we had never heard these words before? What if we were Peter, James, or one of the Apostles present at the Last Supper? What would these words have meant to us? To be continued. Viva Cristo Rey!
