Letter From The Pastor...

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

We continue our reflections on the Holy Mass. Today we continue on the third part which is the Liturgy of Eucharist. Last Sunday we have concluded with the question: what do the words of Consecration really mean to us?

For many Catholics, these words might be too familiar. Some of us have heard these words hundreds or thousands of times since our childhood repeated at every Holy Mass. We might be tempted to take them for granted or consider them routine. But what if we had never heard these words before? What if we were Peter, James, or one of the other Apostles present at the Last Supper?

At this important moment in the prayer, we proclaim the mystery of faith: a summary of the paschal mystery, which affirms the reality of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection, the saving power of the mystery unfolding before us, and the anticipated second coming of Christ.

The memorial of the Eucharist is not simply a memory of something that happened in the past, of an event that has already occurred centuries ago. Rather, it is a "re-presentation" (in the most literal sense of the term), that is, it involves making present here and now, in a sacramental and real form, the same mystery that is celebrated: the Lord's Paschal Mystery: His death and resurrection.

When St. Gabriel of Our Lady of Sorrows coughed up blood for the first time, an evident sign of his tuberculosis and a prelude of his early death, he ran to the chapel with his blood-stained handkerchief and, kneeling at the foot of the Crucifix, he said, "Lord, life for life, blood for blood, love for love."

To be continued. Viva Cristo Rey!
