Letter From The Pastor...

Dear Parishioners and Visitors,

We continue our reflections on the Holy Mass. Today we begin forth part which is the Communion Rites and Concluding Rites.

When we receive the Eucharist, we receive Jesus himself and Jesus frees us from the bondage of sin. The Eucharist thus becomes the new communion meal which bonds us in deep friendship with God. In the Bible, the body represents the whole person, therefore in the sacrifice of the Mass Jesus' whole life is offered up to the Father for us. In addition, not only do we receive Jesus in the Eucharist, but Jesus also receives us into himself. As we receive the Eucharist, we are taken out of ourselves and assimilated into Christ so that we begin to take on his virtues and character. Therefore, receiving the Eucharist is an extremely sacred moment during Mass that we should be present to.

The Communion Rites in our Holy Mass starts with The Lord's Prayer. Jesus himself taught us how to pray: "When you pray, say: Our Father..." We have renewed our baptism as children of God, Whom we can now call "Our Father". We are now in heaven with Him, having lifted up our hearts. We have hallowed His name by praying the Holy Mass. By uniting our sacrifice with Jesus' eternal sacrifice, we have seen God's will done "on earth as it is in heaven". We have before us Jesus, our "daily bread" and this bread will "forgive us our trespasses", because Holy Communion wipes away all venial sins. We have known mercy then, and so we will show mercy, forgiving "those who trespass against us". And through Holy Communion we will know new strength over temptation and evil. The Holy Mass fulfills the Lord's Prayer perfectly, word for words. After Lord's Prayer, the priest alone adds the embolism, which the people conclude with doxology "For the kingdom..." The embolism is a prayer, which contains a request to deliver all faithful from the power of evil and protect from anxiety.

To be continued. Viva Cristo Rey!
